MARSH, Judge:

1- OPINION AND ORDER

Petitioner, an inmate in the custody of the Federal Bureau of Prisons (BOP), currently housed at the Federal Correctional Institution (FCI) Sheridan, brings this habeas corpus proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2241.

On March 22, 2005 Petitioner pleaded guilty to two counts of Bank Robbery in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 2113(a), in the District of Oregon. He was sentenced to 70 months imprisonment, 3 years of supervised release, and ordered to pay restitution in the amount of $8738. The judgment contained a page entitled "Schedule of Payments- Supervised Release," which stated, inter alia, that Petitioner shall pay any unpaid restitution balance remaining at the time of his release from custody "at the maximum installment possible and not less than $100 per month." This page also contained a boilerplate paragraph stating that if a period of imprisonment was imposed, "payment of criminal monetary penalties shall be due during the period of imprisonment." In other words, the sentencing court did not set a payment schedule by which Petitioner was to pay down his restitution sentence while in prison.

According to Petitioner, when he arrived at FCI Sheridan the BOP began withdrawing restitution payments of $25 per month from his prison bank account, pursuant to the Inmate Financial Responsibility Program (IFRP). See 28 C.F.R. § 545.10, et seq. Petitioner requests that this Court issue a Writ of Habeas Corpus commanding Respondent to cease collecting any restitution payments from him on the basis that the BOP does not have authority to "force" petitioner to pay his restitution because the sentencing court did not fix a restitution payment schedule for his period of imprisonment. Petitioner also asks the Court to command Respondent to identify Petitioner as "IFRP-Exempt," to vacate his "IFRP-refusal status," to vacate associated sanctions imposed upon him, and to restore him to "the position he would have been but for the wrongful actions of the respondent."

By his answer dated December 13, 2008, Respondent concedes the writ should be granted, but argues that no relief should be ordered because the BOP will voluntarily "cease collection activity pursuant to the IFRP and will identify [Petitioner] as IFRP exempt."

Petitioner has made a sufficient showing that the BOP's collection of restitution payments from him contravenes the Mandatory Victims Restitution Act of 1996 (MVRA)<sup>1</sup>, because the sentencing court did not set a schedule of payments for his period of imprisonment. See United States v. Gunning, 339 F.3d 948 (9th Cir. 2003) (Gunning I), and United States v. Gunning, 401 F.3d 1145 (9th Cir. 2005) (Gunning II). Despite Respondent's similar concessions in multiple Section 2241 cases in this district<sup>2</sup>, Respondent has not ceased collection of restitution payments from prisoners in the same position as Petitioner without a court order. Accordingly, I once again issue the writ of habeas corpus, and command Respondent to designate this Petitioner "IFRP Exempt." This designation will lift the sanctions associated with "IFRP-refusal status." Petitioner is not entitled to any other relief. He is not worse off for having made payments toward his restitution debt.

<sup>1</sup> The MVRA states, in relevant part, "Upon determination of the amount of restitution owed to each victim, the court shall, pursuant to section 3572, specify in the restitution order the manner in which, and the schedule according to which, the restitution is to be paid...". 18 U.S.C. § 3664(f)(2).

CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing, Petitioner's habeas corpus petition (#2) is GRANTED, and the BOP is ordered to designate Petitioner "IFRP Exempt."

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED this 7 day of March, 2008.
